“Gluttony: Society’s Most Acceptable Sin”

1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Overindulgence has become a hallmark of our modern American culture. Our bodies are constantly alive with conflicting desires and drives. The temptation to eat too much, drink too much, or indulge in any number of things is constant. And it is also trivialized. So what if a person eats a little too much? It’s his body! It’s her life! Or is it? How can we bring honor to God with our bodies? Is caring for them carnal, or is it a responsible activity of stewardship?

I. Your Body Is a Holy Place (v. 19a)

II. Your Body Has a Holy Person (v. 19b)

III. Your Body Had a Hefty Price (vv. 19c-20a)

IV. Your Body Has a Heavenly Purpose (v. 20b)
